Spent two years in Spain on a Mormon mission.

"Actually, I decided to go when I was 14 years old. More than anything I was trying to figure out my own religious belief at the time."

"I mean at the beginning of the year, as an example, he made cards of his name, (?) days, address and phone number. And he was handing them out to people, like incoming freshmen, (...) 'They can always call Matthew'." (Michael McDonald)